YEARBOOK DRIVE CONTEST CLOSED SUNDAY EVENING

Seniors, Freshmen
Win By Twenty Points

The Petit Jean contest closed Sunday night with the seniors and freshmen leading the juniors, sophomores and academy by a score of 146 to 126. The heavy lead of the seniors and freshmen was due to the last few hours of reservation among the freshmen.

Vivian Moser, freshman, won individual salesman honors by reserving thirty annuals. Robert Oliver, of the sophomore class, came second with fifteen reservations. According to James McDaniel, president of the senior class and business manager of the Petit Jean, a party will be given for the class salesmen along with the entertainment the student body is to have.

This year's plan of annual reservation was very successful, and is probably due to the unique method by which the reservations were secured. The staff felt that it would be more effective to contact the classes with a representative from their own group.

Representatives for the winning side were: Vivian Moser and Scott Blansett, freshmen, and the annual staff for the seniors. The losers were represented by Bill Harris and Corinne Bell, juniors, Reddie Bridges and Robert Oliver, sophs, and Dorothy Bixler for the academy.

The losers will entertain the winners in the near future.

Armstrong Speaks To Faculty At Second Meeting

Dr. J. N. Armstrong was the speaker at the second faculty meeting of the year on last Thursday afternoon in the Home Economics dining room.

Dr. Armstrong's subject was "The Ideal Teacher". In his remarks, he suggested that the ideal teacher was one who always kept the welfare of the student foremost in his mind.

Preceding Dr. Armstrong's speech, refreshments were served by the Home Economics department. Mrs. Cyril E. Abbott sang two numbers with piano accompaniment by Miss Mary Blankenship.

This Week's Question

WHAT IS YOUR OPINION OF THE COLLEGE BROADCAST LAST TUESDAY AFTERNOON? VIRGINIA O'Neal—I think it was good advertising for the school and should be continued.

SCOTT BLANSETT—It was exceptionally good considering the small amount of practice that the group had.

JIM MAPLE—I think it was mighty fine.

EVA THOMPSON—The program was good but the static wasn't so good.

WANDA LEE FIELDER—It was wonderful!

SPRAT OLIVER—Swell!!

CLIFF COCHRAN—Very good advertising for the school.

MARY ADAMS—I didn't get to hear it, I was in class.

NUBBIN ROE—A little too classical.

JACK BOMAR—Very good considering difficulties.

Feature Writer Urges The Student Body To Play All Winter Long

They say that if one cannot think of anything else to talk about, the weather is always an available subject. It seldom fails to change, at least once a week in Arkansas; therefore it is nearly always new, avoiding monotony.

Now just because it frosted the other night don't allow yourself to fret and fume and complain about the severe cold weather—enjoy this brisk, energetic weather. After all, variety is the spice of life. If you don't believe this is the best weather at all, ask Bro. Armstrong. He will tell you that you cannot find such beautiful weather anywhere except in Arkansas.

Honest Jim has apparently broken all previous records—he broke the ice and has been wearing a topcoat and scarf. Don't you freshmen get me wrong; there is no ice around here, but he is rushing the season.

Jim is cold-blooded I suppose, but just wait—some of these warm-blooded people will show you how to take more of this chilly weather than we have seen yet. Iris Merritt likes to go to school with short sleeves when snow and ice are on the ground and one's breath leaves a string of white clouds as he walks down the slippery sidewalks. Not Iris only, but there are other girls and even boys who like the feel of the cool refreshing air.

Freshmen, an important announcement—do not study that chemistry and psychology all of your spare time. Psychologists say that one should not study more than about five hours per day and only half of that amount at one sitting. So, instead of throwing those books away, take them to your room and place them in their proper places.

Now get your paraphernalia, harness, and "what have you" for tennis, basketball, football, baseball, swimming, and track. Don't allow the tennis court to be idle until the first hot day in the spring—use it this winter—keep it occupied. You football players! use that extra energy that the cold weather gives you—there's no rule against it—you don't realize what liberty you have. Let's keep Harding's campus alive out-of-doors this fall and winter as much as possible!

When it is rainy and sloppy outside, do not gripe about it, but go to the gym or the swimming pool and have all the fun that you can. You have heard it said that all work and no play make Jack a dull boy, but I say that all study and no play is even worse. We are not monks! I hope.

Satisfaction and happiness are half of living anyway, so why not do things that will make us happy and do us good besides helping us? J. P. THORNTON.

Twenty Books Purchased By College Library

Twenty new books have been purchased by the college library. These books have arrived and are now available.

These books are: "Commercial Teaching Problems" by Lomax, "Elements of Modern Economics" by Meyers, "Good American Speech" by McLean, "Pronouncing Dictionary" by Jones, "Correction of Speech Defects" by H. M. Pappard, "Foundations of Expression," "Little Classics," and "Spoken English" by S. S. Carry, "Radio Speech" by S. P. Lawton, "Drills in Expression" by A. E. Phillips, "How We Train the Body" by E. J. Harwood, "Your Money's Worth" by Chase and Schlink, "Dictators and Democracies" by H. C. Hoover, "International Relations" by E. H. Care, "Technique of Teaching Typewriting" by J. S. Clem, "Psychology and Teaching Arithmetic" by H. S. Wheat, "Gateway to History" by Mevins, "Child Psychology" by F. D. Brooks, "Teaching of Literature" by Smith, "Approaches to American Social History" by W. E. Linglebach, "Riddle of the World" by D. S. Cains, and two Webster's International Dictionaries.

"H" Club Goes To Cochran's Bluff

Members of the "H" Club and their dates visited Cochran's Bluff on an all-day outing yesterday. They were chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Berryhill.

Members and their dates were: Julian Dewberry and Tommie Jeanie Davis; Raymond Vaughan and Sue Hall; Roy Roe and Wanda Hall; Mr. and Mrs. Elwin Roe; J. H. Rice and Elizabeth Roberson; Norman Smith and Mildred Manley; R. T. Clark and Charlene Bergner; Lowe Hogan and Jeanne Anderson; Roy Huffaker and Pauline White; Clyde Watts, junior Carroll.

The population of Hawaii on June 30 of this year was placed at 411,485 or an increase of 14,770 over the previous year.

"Eternal Youth" Given Friday In College Auditorium

"Eternal Youth," a three-act play given free of charge, was given to a crowded auditorium last Friday evening. This was the first Campus Player production of the year and was under the direction of Mrs. O. M. Coleman.

The plot centered around a widow, Mrs. McLean, and a widower, Mr. Luther Long, both forty years of age, who met during vacation time. Mrs. McLean thought that Mr. Long was very rich and about thirty years of age. Mr. Long also guessed that Mrs. McLean was much younger and also was very wealthy.

When Long comes to visit Mrs. McLean, each tries to impress the other as being younger by dressing their children much younger. As a result, Mr. Long's sister becomes suspicious and the truth becomes known. However, after many explanations and embarrassments, especially on the part of "little Julia", the whole affair is straightened out, including the finances, and the marriage plans continue.

The cast of the play included Mrs. Oral Cone, Lloyd Brents, Carlton Hocutt, Geneva Hardin, Louise Hampton, Wayne Smethers, Fayette Coleman, Margaret Alice Redus, Nancy Mullaney, Adam C. Melton, and Mary Jane Scott.

Immediately following the program season lyceum tickets were sold outside the door.

The first production of the lyceum course, "The Bat," will be given November 17.

Bomar to Announce Bison News Flash

THE BISON will sponsor a news flash on the weekly broadcast that is being given by the college each Tuesday afternoon over station KLRA.

Jack Bomar will be the announcer for the staff. Bomar is the publicity director for the college.

The news will consist of the most important event of the week, given in a very brief form.

SECOND PROGRAM IN RADIO SERIES THIS AFTERNOON

Berryhill to Speak On Program This Afternoon

Harding College will present the second program of the weekly radio series this afternoon from 3:30 to 4:00 in the college auditorium.

After the "Alma Mater" the male quartet will render a number. Eloise Melton will play two piano selections, "Etude in A Flat Major" by Wellinhaupt, and the "Joyful Peasant" by Shuman. Coach Ervin Berryhill will make the principle speech on the "Origin and Political Significance of Czechoslovakia." Following the speech a girls' sextette will sing "Egyptian Song." A piano solo entitled "Ritual Fine Dance" will be played by Miss Dorothy Blankenship. The weekly news flash sponsored by The Bison, will be given by Jack Bomar, concerning the lecture to be given by Mr. Kraft Friday night. Following this a male octet will sing, and Dr. Benson will bring the program to a close with a short speech on the lecture by Mr. Kraft and the lecture series that is to be sponsored by the college this year.

The following will participate in the broadcast: Jack Bomar, Eloise Melton, Dorothy Blankenship, Mary Agnes Evans, M. E. Berryhill, President Benson, Sidney Hooper, Douglas Harris, Houston Itin, Virginia O'Neal, Marie Brannen, La Vonne Thornton, Wailan Floyd, Pauline Moser, Vivian Moser, Charlene Bergner, Mrs. Cathcart, Jack Wood Sears, Fletcher Floyd, Vernon Boyd, Jesse Rhodes, Kenneth Davis, John Mason, Bill Harris, Scott Blansett, Wayne Smethers, and Mrs. Florence Fletcher Jewell. The programs are under the direction of Mr. Leonard Kirk.

Pep Squad Elects Alston to Head Club This Year

At a meeting of the Pep Squad last week officers were elected for the coming year. They are Annie Mae Alston, president; Eunice Maple, vice-president; and Elizabeth Roberson, secretary-treasurer. Miss Margaret Alston was chosen to serve as sponsor and Ralph Bell as cheer leader.

The Pep Squad was organized in the fall of 1936. It was originally composed of thirty girls chosen by the "H" Club, but since that time new members have been chosen by the girls of the organization independent of the "H" Club's choice.

Each year the squad is given one trip to make with the ball team under the supervision of the school. In March, 1937, the group accompanied the basketball team to Nashville, Tennessee, when the Bisons played David Lipscomb. Last year the girls went with the basketball team to Russellville, Arkansas, when the Herd met Arkansas Tech.

The group will send their invitations for new club members this week. They will start practice on their formations as soon as the invitations are filled.

CHURCH SERVICE

Dr. J. N. Armstrong was in charge of the church services of the college congregation Sunday. His subject at the morning service was "The Blessedness of Giving." At the evening meeting he spoke on "Taking Christ as Our Example." The song service was conducted by Jack Wood Sears.

James L. Kraft To Speak Here

Benson Closes Missionary Meeting At Bald Knob

Pres. George S. Benson conducted the final service of a two weeks missionary meeting last Sunday night at Bald Knob. There was one restoration during the meeting.

Although Dr. Benson was to be the speaker for the entire meeting, Dr. L. C. Sears, Mr. John Lee Dykes, and Mr. L. E. Pryor filled the pulpit during a six days absence caused by an attack of influenza.

The college bus carried groups of young people from the college several times during the meeting to encourage interest in the services. Weather conditions were very adverse at times, but the interest shown by the good attendance was an encouragement.

The singing was directed by Mr. Leonard Kirk of the college faculty.

This meeting was the first of a series that the church worshipping in the auditorium intends to sponsor this year. Leonard Kirk, George S. Benson, and J. A. Thompson have been appointed to serve as a committee to choose the locations for the meetings, to get preachers to conduct them, and to take care of the new tent.

The church intended to evangelize the territory surrounding Searcy and other nearby points.

Lena Mae Kidd Undergoes Operation

Lena Mae Kidd, freshman, from Clinton, Arkansas, underwent an operation for a ruptured appendix last Friday afternoon in the Wake-night Sanatorium. Her condition was reported to be serious, but favorable for recovery.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Kidd, arrived on the campus to attend her.

Academy Freshmen Visit Bee Rock

Academy freshmen held their outing at Bee Rock on Monday. The group left at 8 o'clock and walked as far as the bridge. From there on they rowed down the river in boats. They followed this same plan on their return trip.

Those who attended were: Mary Brown, Mary Jane Scott, Rufus Darwin and Walter Byers.

James Adams and Alice Jo Bryant accompanied the class.

OPENING LECTURE OF SERIES SPONSORED BY COLLEGE

James L. Kraft, president of the Kraft Cheese Corporation, will be a visitor on the campus, Friday, October 28.

A dinner will be given in honor of Mr. Kraft at 6:00 p. m. in the Home Economics dining room, and special guests will be invited. Then, at 8:00 Mr. Kraft will speak on the subject of "The Greatest Asset to Democracy" in the school auditorium.

"This is a continuation of a program which Harding College is sponsoring, bringing outstanding business executives to the state of Arkansas. It is a unique movement among the colleges, and has as its purpose to create better understanding between business and education," said Dr. Benson.

Two hundred letters from prominent business executives commending this program have been received. Leroy A. Lincoln, president of Metropolitan Life Insurance Co.; Gen. Harbord, chairman of the Board, Radio Corp. of America; Colby Chester, President of American Association of Manufacturers; F. W. Lovejoy, President of Eastman Kodak Co.; and F. S. Lamont representing the Rockefeller interests, are among the noted executives who have praised the movement.

Mr. Kraft created and built the Kraft-Phenix Cheese Corp., largest of its kind in the world, in a brief 35 years. After earning his own way through a business college he worked in a Buffalo store, where he became convinced that in the packaging of cheese lay the successful future of this industry.

He began to fulfill his ambition as a lowly cheese peddler in Chicago, starting with the total capital of $65. Seven years later he revolutionized the cheese industry by developing a method of blending and pasteurizing cheese so it could be sold in sanitary packages of uniformly flavored cheese without rind or waste.

Within 25 years, Mr. Kraft's ambition to build the "largest cheese business in the world" was realized and today the company with its numerous branches throughout the world sells more than a million pounds of cheese per day.

Freshman Class Hikes to Bee Rock

The freshman class journeyed to Bee Rock for its fall outing yesterday. The group left the campus at 8:30 and hiked to Red River, and returned in the late afternoon in the college bus.

Those who went were: Kern Sears, Ordie Copeland, Scott Blansett, James Maple, Nell O'Neal, Mary Alberta Ellis, Sarah Halbrook, Jeanne Lawyer, Mary Adams, Marjorie McGibboney, Frances Williamson, Velda Forrest, Lorene Heberd, Marie Clay, Marjorie Meeks, Virginia Stewart.

Jack Hudkins, Orvid Mason, James Berry, Kenneth Davis, Marjorie Kelly, Louise Nichols, Elizabeth Arnold, Virginia McDaniel, Edoline King, Ralph Blagg, Bill Alexander, Odean Floyd, Ina Jo Crawford, Claudine Garner, Earl Priest, Lloyd Wright, Earl Stover, Iris Merritt, Lillian Walden, Donald Healy, Eva Jo Brown, Carlton Hocutt, and Ann French.

Leonard Kirk, class sponsor, chaperoned the group.

REPORTORIAL STAFF—Valda Montgomery, Margaret Lakotas, Orville Coleman, Herbert Lashlee, Billy Yount, S. F. Timmerman, Anne French, Gene Koken, Louis Green, Marie Brannen, and Marjorie Kelley.

Your Rightful Heritage.

There are several things that the world owes man. Among these are: first, a sound mind; second, a sound body; third, enough education for him to fit into society.

He is usually born with the first two of these and can retain them with proper care. But the third is left up to the individual's own initiative.

Some people have the mistaken idea that the world owes them an education, and that it should be handed to them on a silver platter. They cannot understand that there are a few obstacles that must be overcome before their education can be achieved. In school they blame the teacher for their poor grades, or they say that the tests are too hard.

Other people develop the correct attitude. They say, "The world owes me an education. Just try and let her beat me out of it!" Money is not an obstacle that might stand in your way. Anyone who wants to get an education had enough can get it.

The world owes you an education too—get it!

Attend the Lectures!

Let me urge you to attend the lecture that is to be given Friday night by the noted Mr. James L. Kraft here in the auditorium. It is for our benefit that the college is bringing these men to our school. Look around and see how many other colleges are undertaking to bring such outstanding men to speak on the conditions of the country. As far as we know, there is no other college in the state that has such a project.

The businessmen of the town should be present at the event too. Such a speaker as this should interest all that engage in a business enterprise, a man that knows the conditions of the country is the person that they should hear. Business men from all the surrounding towns are going to be present at the lecture. Are you going to let a speaker appear in your own home town and have an audience of business men from other towns?

The aim of these lectures are "to bring about a better understanding between business and education." This is what the country needs and if other colleges in the state would sponsor similar enterprises this aim could be achieved much quicker. Harding has set the foundation for an improvement; and here's to a better understanding between the business man and the student!

THE EDITOR.

Social clubs will soon receive new members. Each club carefully considers each candidate. May each new member be accepted unto that club whose aims coincide with her own ideas and into a group in which she will fit.

GEORGE GURGANUS WORE A PAIR OF Dr. Benson's socks last week through a mistake at the laundry. For a while I thought George was trying to step into the president's shoes.

ACCORDING TO REPORTS Hy Slaten keeps pretty good tab on "Greek" Tabor. The other morning she had a chum of "Greek's" to go up and wake him up so he could go to class.

PLUTO SCOOPS AT THE PLAY the other night. Among the new dates are Doniphan "My Son" Rowe and Mildred Leasure, Don Bentley and Opaline Turner, Morgan "Cuestick" Poole and Dorothy Bixler; also Bill Medearis and Wanda Lee are at it again.

A GUY WHO GOT "BIT" SAID that love is like smelling a rose with a bee inside it. He also bitterly quoted that a kiss is nothing divided by two.

FLASH! FLASH- To West Virginia; Citizen, you had better be glad that you answered and you had better answer some one else's letter soon too.

CALLING ALL CARS! CALLING ALL CARS! A rattle trap is on the loose. One Model T touring car is seen, heard, felt, and even smelt on the campus. Driven by a big handsome brute with more brawn than brains. Pick him up and take his play-pretty to the junk pile. On the way back bring me a hamburger, without onions. That is all.

MARGARET ALSTON says that the reason a person drowns is because he goes down three times and comes up only twice. To those who don't know, she is a life saving examiner. Maybe she knows what she is talking about.

BELIEVE IT OR NOT, but Mr. Kirk was inquiring around to see if he could get a date with Miss Score. This would be a scoop almost as big as Valda's debut.

CANDIDATES FOR R. O. L. H. U. (Royal Order of Lampost Holder-Uppers) are Harpo Rice, Cliff Cochran, Smitty, Tootsie Vaughn, and Miss Julian Dewberry. Tsh, tsh.

BILL MEDEARIS PLAYED BALL the other afternoon on the Snipes softball team and after the game as the players were going off the field he asked "Who won?"

MEDITATIONS

By Mabel Dean McDoniel

Futile attempts at conversation
Annoy me.
People who stand around
And talk
Trying desperately
To find something to say
That will please each other.

In some classes, the professor's voice, his manner, his personality tend to make me attentive and mentally alert. His calm procedure, and his thorough knowledge of the subject being taught are conducive to learning.

Again, I become bored when the teacher, with nothing prepared, skips nervously from one theme to another, rarely touching the lesson assigned. Not being equipped himself, he cannot create in his students the desire to learn, nor does he have the power of motivation, upon which the very act of learning is hinged.

This afternoon, again, we shall hear the voice of Harding College. The first broadcast from our school auditorium was in many ways a success. The vastness of the radio audience will determine just how great a success. By such a demonstration of talent and ideas weekly, the advertising benefit is unlimited.

I like:
The dull glimmer of electric lights posted here and there on a cold, misty night—to see bright faces gathered about a cozy fireplace through an uncurtained window—a lone star, on a cloudy night, trying to penetrate the dense darkness—walking in the rain, letting it sprinkle my hair and face—to awake, when the sun peeps through my window, feeling revived and ready for a new day.

My problem seems to be a common one—much to do and so little time to do it in. Here the solution may be an economical utilization of time and a judging of values. Each must weigh his activities and judge from the standpoint of their importance. After a wise course is laid out, one should pursue it diligently, yet reserve sufficient time for participation in social, religious and scholastic activities, being careful lest one unbalance the others.

All signs of drowsy laziness caused by the late summer are rapidly disappearing. Cooler days bring additional energy and mental alertness more conducive to classroom study. Summer, by outstaying her welcome this year, makes us appreciate the variety the seasons bring.

With Other Colleges

University of Kentucky cheer leaders have to take a six weeks training course before being allowed to try out for the jobs.

Hendrix College will celebrate Homecoming Day and Dad's Day, November 18.

"Bailey Stadium" is the new name for the University of Arkansas' new football bowl. The governor was given this honor on his forty-third birthday.

Hendrix College is now giving tubercular tests to every student in accordance with the new medical program adopted by the school last spring.

Fritz Reiner, former orchestra leader is conducting a music appreciation course at Carnegie Institute of Technology.

A University of Georgia fact-finder has estimated that students spend 21,000 hours a year standing in lines during registration periods.

The University of New Mexico has a special lighting research project.

Six students of the Little Rock High School attended the Southern Association of Student Government October 14 and 15.

Neighbor—"I wonder why your new baby brother cries so much."
Bobby—"Oh, I guess that you would cry too if all your teeth were out, your hair all cut off, and your legs so weak that you couldn't stand on them."

The trouble with the world is that so many of the people knock on the door that's marked "Push."

A man read a message and address on an egg he got for breakfast. The message read:
Every girl would like to have a clear, white skin—especially if it's ermine.

"We have everything on the menu today, sir," said the waitress. "So I see, how about a clean one."

Marine—"This tonic is no good."
Sailor—"What! That is a very good brand."
Marine—"Well, all the directions it gives are for adults and I've never had them yet."

Fragments . . .

My inspiration has gone, my appetite has flown away, I am beladen with tasks, and greatly afflicted with six weeks tests and otherwise. It is a cold, cold world, and the only place I can find sympathy is in the dictionary.

That Book Again
Vachel Lindsay has said something that I never knew he said; why the quotation is in my education book I can't imagine, but here it is. Take it for what it is worth, but read it twice:
"This is what I came out into the wilderness to see. This man had nothing and gave me half of it, and we both had abundance."
The book goes on to explain that this is the miracle of democracy—but it is it not, even more so, the miracle of Christianity. But, then, from whence came democracy?

From my Kentucky suite-mate comes the happy thought that the elevator boy in Mussolini's palace can sure enjoy himself "raising the Duce."

Puny Pun Dep't.
But just see if it doesn't strike you as funny too.
"I guess I've lost another pupil," said the professor as his glass eye rolled down the kitchen sink.

One of The Freshman
On completing a difficult examination about which he was rather skeptical wrote at the bottom of the paper, "Dear teacher, if you sell any of my answers to the funny paper, I expect you to split fifty-fifty with me." Bargaining in ignorance!!

If We Had
Freshmen caps it would be a good time for me to pull that old joke about "How do they keep those dinky little caps on?"—"Vacuum pressure." The "pressure" is there tho we haven't adopted the traditional caps yet!

Romana Pastoral
(Poem to you)
They walked along together
The sky was covered with stars;
They reached the gate in silence,
He lifted the iron bar;
She raised her dark eyes to him;
For there was nothing between them now
For he was only a hired man
And she, a Guernsey cow!

And may we take leave for this week—reminding you that nothing is as futile as regret, even column writing.

Resolved
Determination grips my soul
At the break of every dawn,
I wrap the bedclothes around me
And determinedly snooze on.

Buckshot
The Harris twins went hunting and both saw a rabbit. Here's what happened:
Bill shot buckshot after Buck shot buckshot. But the buckshot that Buck shot was better than the buckshot that Bill shot, for the buckshot that Buck shot had more buckshot in it than the buckshot that Bill shot. Anyhow, the rabbit got away.

Backstage

By Sidney Hooper

For some years there have been requests for a mystery play to be given here by the Campus Players. The culmination of this desire will occur when the mystery drama, "The Bat," by Mary Roberts Rineheart, will be presented. The cast includes several very experienced players.

The Campus Players organization is a service group. It was organized when Harding was located in Morrilton, and has had a two-fold purpose: to present all plays as a work of true art, and to help Harding College.

Very few of us realized how much Harding College Campus Players have done for the school. The auditorium in which the chapel assembly is held and in which all programs are presented was in 1934 an unsightly room. The raised floor that is now there has replaced the flat floor of former years. The stage has been equipped with lights—spots, foots, and borders. Today, the Harding stage has facilities for presenting almost any lighting effect desired.

Why not have a community sing? Everyone likes music of some kind. Why not have a get-together and everybody sing? A good time would be Saturday night, a good place would be the dining hall or the boys' reception rooms, some some people to participate would be all Hardingites who want to sing for the sheer joy of singing. Mr. Kirk has agreed to be master of ceremonies. The songs would be the old favorites, like Stephen Collins Foster's work or the old college songs, like "There is a Tavern in the Town," "Love's Old Sweet Song," etc.

It has often been said that Harding has the best dramatics in the state. One of the plays that helped to give it this reputation is "The Great Divide." It was first presented with Dean L. C. Sears, then a student, and Mrs. L. C. Sears, then Pattie Hathaway Armstrong, in the leading roles.

Several years ago, along about 1935, the leads were played by Jack Wood Sears and Gertrude Paine. There has been some talk about presenting the play again, because of the great demand. I'd like to put in my plug for it.

SPIRIT OF CHRIST

Conducted By
S. F. Timmerman

Leslie Burke.

There are many things in the fields of history, science, politics, and religion that may with absolute impunity be denied. I must deny the statements of many whose integrity none would impugn. Man is fallible. Man's wisdom changes with each passing year and is modified from generation to generation. The very nature of such facts forces a denial from every intelligent person. No wisdom can harmonize absolute contradictions and incongruities.

In Paul's second letter to Timothy, in the second chapter and the eleventh verse, he begins a "faithful saying" with the statement of a fact that must be evident to all: "If we died with him we shall also live with him." If it is a fact that we did die to our past life of sin, if we did really repent of those ways whose end is death, if in this dying to the old man, we submitted to our new Master and were "buried with him by baptism into death," then, just as certain as is this death, just so certain is it that we "shall live with him." There is no other alternative. To die this death must be to live with him.

Verse 2: "If we endure, we shall also reign with him." To suffer the denial of self of the things that may seem to us very desirable; to remain patient when we are evil-spoken of, reviled, misunderstood, and condemned; to remain cheerful when the "sledding is rough" and perilous; to endure all the afflictions that may come as the price of faithfulness to ideals, convictions, and your calling—all this will help to prepare for that perfect life with him. This enduring means reigning with him now by letting him reign in and through us that when the last enemy has been put down, we may render the perfect service in eternity.

On the other hand, "if we shall deny him, he also will deny us." To deny him the service, the praise, and the glory that characterizes the Christian life must inevitably bring from him a just denial that we should receive the blessings entailed in his confiding us. "If we are faithless" in rendering to him that service of love and reverence,

Ju-Go-Ju's Sponsor Formal Reception

A formal reception in honor of new students was given by the Ju-Go-Ju social club last Saturday evening in the boys' reception rooms.

Guests were received by members of the Ju-Go-Ju club and their dates. Members and their dates were: Hazel Barnes and Joe Lewis Leslie; Corinne Bell and Houston Itin; Sue McHam and Nick Camp; Avanelle Elliott and Jack Wood Sears; Florence Lowery and Kern Sears; Edith Hulett and Ralph Blagg; Eva Boshell and Travis Blue; Mrs. L. C. Sears, sponsor, and Dean Sears.

The club colors of purple and white were carried out in the decorations by use of purple dahlias and white chrysanthemums, and white tapers.

Corsages were sent by the club to the new girls and to the lady teachers, and boutonnières were sent to the new boys.

The program included: Reading, "That Old Sweetheart of Mine", by Jack Wood Sears; Song, "Smiling Through", by John Mason; Songs, "Crossing the Bar", and "When Love is Kind", by Fletcher Floyd; Songs, "Passing By", and "Where'er You Walk", by Leonard Kirk. Mary Agnes Evans was accompanist for the singers and also furnished incidental music during the evening.

Refreshments of punch and cookies were served by Mrs. L. C. Sears and Avanelle Elliott.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Dykes Entertain Couples

One of the charming courtesies of the week was the party given by Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Dykes at their home in honor of the younger married couples of the faculty.

After an enjoyable evening of lingo, Chinese checkers, matador, and fiddlesticks, tempting refreshments were served.

Those invited were: Mr. and Mrs. Neil Cope, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Burke, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Abbott, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Berryhill, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Dykes, and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hughes.

Gata Club Sponsors Tramp Party

Years were turned back on the calendar when a joyful crowd of girls gathered at the boys' reception room Thursday evening at 6:00 o'clock for a tramp party sponsored by the Gata Club.

The evening was spent tramping from house to house. The first stop was the college farm where popcorn was given to the tramps. Vivian and Pauline Moser rendered two vocal duets: "When My Dream Boat Comes Home" and "Danny Boy."

The next stop was at Mr. J. L. Dykes' home where bubble gum was donated to the tramps. A quartet composed of John Mason, Fletcher Floyd, Jess Rhodes, and Hugh Rhodes rendered several vocal selections.

The final stop was in the boys' reception rooms where games were played. Sandwiches and hot spiced tea was served by the Gata's.

Arkansas Club Sees "Marie Antoinette"

The Arkansas Club sponsored a theatre party Thursday night at the Rialto Theatre. They went to see "Marie Antoinette."

Those who attended were: James McDaniel, Corinne Bell; Fletcher Floyd, Wanda Hall; Lowe Hogan, Jeanne Anderson; Sidney Hooper, Marjorie Meeks; William Medearis, Wanda Lee Fielder; James Adams, Alice Jo Bryant; Ordie Copeland, Willella Knappe; Raymond Vaughan, Edna Helm; John Mason, Glendine Barrett; Scott Blansett, Mary Alberta Ellis; Rogers Bartley, Marjorie Lynch; J. E. Bartley, Louise Willard; Clifford Crochan, Florence Densmore; Dewey Word, Lourelia Whitten; Shelby Heltsley; Opaline Turner; Nick Camp, Sue McHam; Iris Merritt, Sarah Halbrook; Ralph Bell, Frances McQuiddy; James Daniels, Evelyn Ches-shir, Maude Emma Webb, Jo Sullivan, Faye Sullivan; Jack Bomar, Sue Hall; Norman Smith, Mildred Manley; J. H. Rice, Elizabeth Roberson; Robert Oliver, Lena Kay Melville; James Warren, T. Rose Terry; Virginis McDaniel, Marie Brannen; Reese Walton, Glenda Higginbotham; and Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Sears, chaperons.

Ko Jo Kai's Meet

Miss Mildred Manley, president of the Ko-Ju-Kai's called a special meeting Wednesday night at 9:00 o'clock to discuss plans for entertaining the new club members.

Adelphians to Give Hallowe'en Party

The spirit of Hallowe'en and kiddish enthusiasm will be the theme of the Annual Adelphean Kid Party, Saturday night, October 29. Plans for the party have been completed and the following committees have been appointed: Program, Alice Bryant and Christine Witherington. Foods: Inez Davis and La Verne Harper. Decoration: Naomi Holt and Mabel Dean McDaniel.

Prizes will be given for the cleverest Kid costume, boy and girl. There will be contests in the old fashioned apple-bobbing and other Hallowe'en feats. All will be expected to wear childish costume and mask. Both boys and girls are invited.

Gata's Meet

Miss Ruth Langford was hostess to the Gata Club Saturday evening at 9:30 o'clock.

Miss Martha Williams, president, presided over the meeting.

During the social hour hamburgers and coca-Colas were served to the members.

Sparrows In Tie With Sandpipers

SNIPES, STORKS TIED WITH FOUR LOSSES, ONE WIN

At the close of the second week in the intra-mural softball program, the Sparrows and Sandpipers are tied for the lead with four wins and one loss, while the Snipes and Storks are tied for the cellar position with one win against four defeats.

With eight more games to be played, the race seems to be between the two leading teams. One game was rained out last Wednesday, but the two teams played the next day in the first game of a double-header.

Sparrows 1, Snipes 0.

With Alstone Tabor allowing only one hit, the Sparrows defeated the Snipes 1 to 0 Tuesday afternoon in a game that was called at the end of the fifth inning because of rain. Ralph Bell drove a double into right field in the third inning for the only Snipe hit.

The Sparrows run came in the second inning when Hugh Rhodes got on base by an error and made the circuit on wild throws. Warren, Snipe pitcher, allowed only four hits and struck out six batters.

Storks 5, Snipes 0.

Playing in the first game of a double-header Thursday afternoon, "Preacher" Roe's Storks won their first game of the season by shutting out the Snipes, 5 to 0.

With Bill Harris allowing only four scattered hits, the Snipes never threatened to score.

The game lasted only five innings in order to give the teams playing in the second game ample time to play their game.

Sandpipers 5, Sparrows 2.

Clyde Watts' Sandpipers handed Vaughan's Sparrows their first defeat of the season in the second game of the double header Thursday afternoon by a score of 5 to 2.

Alstone Tabor, pitcher for the Sparrows, lost his first game, while Wardell Dumas, pitcher for the Sandpipers won his second victory.

STANDINGS

After two weeks of hard playing, the Sandpipers and Sparrows are tied for top place, while the Storks and Snipes are tied for last place.

The Sparrows, led by Tabor's one hit pitching, won a 1 to 0 victory over Snipes, which was called in the fifth inning because of rain.

"Preacher" Roe brought the Storks along with a 5 to 0 victory over the Snipes to win their first game of the season.

The Sandpipers extended their winning streak by winning a 5 to 2 victory over the first place Sparrows, giving them their first defeat of the season.

The Sparrows came back to win from the Storks 3 to 0 in a hard-fought game.

The Sandpipers showed their power in hitting by taking the Snipes 7 to 2 for the last game of the week.

Standings:

Sandpipers	4	1	.800
Snipes	1	4	.200
Storks	1	4	.200

in the second inning with one on base, the Sparrows defeated the Storks 3 to 0 Friday afternoon.

The other Sparrows' run came as the result of a wild throw in the fourth inning.

The Sparrows collected five hits during the seven innings. While the Storks loaded the bases several times, they were unable to hit in the pinch.

Sandpipers 7, Snipes 2.

The Sandpipers came from behind in the fifth inning to push across four runs that inning and three in the sixth inning to defeat the Snipes 7 to 2.

Neither team was able to get in scoring position until the fourth, when the Snipes made a run on an error by Sears, Sandpiper catcher.

The Sandpipers were held hitless until the fifth by Warren, when Laye doubled to right field, starting the Sandpiper rally. Before the side was retired, they had pushed across four runs. In the sixth inning the Sandpipers showed more power by pushing three more runs across the plate.

Clark scored in the last inning for the Snipes' last score.

SOFTBALL GAMES

These softball games are really getting good. Nearly every game is close, and there is some hair-raising close plays every inning. All the players are getting in shape, and they are learning to handle the ball.

The hitting stays about the same, but it is not due to no improvement in the player's hitting, but rather to the improvement of the pitching. Last week, there was a one hit game pitched. When something like that happens in softball, the teams are getting good and the games are interesting to watch.

In last week's paper, I said that there was a sad absence of the fairer sex present at the games. This was not an exaggerated statement, but there is some girls out for every game. There is just about three per cent of the girls come out to see the games, so that is almost a sad absence.

CROSS COUNTRY

A new feature in this years track will be the cross country run. This race is not run in the state AAU meet, but Harding is going to train men for this race because it is listed in the events for the track meet with Arkansas State College.

This event would be good to add to track in this state, because it is a good race and all the other states have it, and then it is good training for track men. It is an extremely hard race to run and after you have seen one of them finished, you will agree with me that it is very hard on the participants.

TWINS

The one set of twins that we have going to school this year seem to be alike in more ways than just appearances. They play on the same softball team and believe it or not they have the same batting average. They are batting .250, getting four hits out of sixteen times at bat. To top that, at the end of the first week's playing, Buck and Bill were both batting .300. It seems like they just will stay together, but maybe next week they won't be down another fifty points. It is remarkable though that at the end of both weeks, both of them should have the same batting average.

BATTING AVERAGES

Clark Stevens, Sandpiper, is leading the hitters this week with an average of .572. He has gotten four hits out of seven times at bat. The reason he has such a low number of times at bat is that he is a pitcher and has not played in every game. "Tige" Carroll has the best average for a regular player, betting .468 with thirteen times at bat and getting six hits. "Preacher" Roe has the most times at bat with seventeen, getting seven hits for an average of .413. He is tied with Euell Sears for the most hits, but Sears has the best percentage, having been at bat but sixteen times for an average of .462.

CROSS COUNTRY RACE ADDED TO TRACK PROGRAM

To Be Used In Intramurals During Fall Quarter

To stimulate interest in Harding's track team as well as to get the track men in shape, Harding will hold an intramural cross country run before Thanksgiving.

Those men who expressed a desire to enter were, Lowe Hogan, R. T. Clark, Jack Laye, Ernest Salners, Scott Blansett and Jim Maple.

John Mason, track manager, stated that the team is trying to schedule a meet with Arkansas State College at Jonesboro for this event.

The participants will be taken out in the country about three or four miles and turned loose to find their way back to the campus. There is no required course for this race. One lap around the oval of the quarter-mile track will complete the race.

North Little Rock Overthrows Lighter Lion Team

Scoring at will, the North Little Rock Wildcats defeated the Searcy Lions 57 to 0 last Friday at the North Little Rock High School stadium.

Getting a slow start, the Wildcats scored only one touchdown in the first quarter, but made up for it by scoring three in the second, two in the third and three more in the fourth quarter.

The Lions never reached a good scoring position throughout the entire game. The off-tackle plays by the Lion backs were good for short gains, but never gave them a scoring opportunity. The Searcy eleven completed only three passes out of 12 tries to gain 47 yards. Two of there were thrown by Hilger, half-back; the other one by Bob Bell, fullback.

Batting Averages:

Clark Stevens, pitcher and infielder for the Sandpipers, is leading the softball league with a healthy average of .572 at the close of the second week.

R. T. Clark, Snipe outfielder, and "Tige" Carroll, Stork infielder, are second and third with .500 and .468 averages respectively.

Only sixteen batters now remain over the .300 mark in hitting. The week's play dropped seven from the leading list.

Dumas stepped into the lead of the pitchers this week by adding two games to his credit for a total of three wins and no losses. Tabor, star hurler for the Sparrows, dropped a hard game to mar his record. He now has four victories and one loss.

Here are the batters above the .300 mark:

	AB	R	H	HR	PCT
Stevens	7	3	4	0	.572
Clark	6	3	3	0	.500
Carroll	13	2	6	1	.468

Morrilton Red Devils Will Be Opponents Of Searcy Lions Friday

Next Friday, the Searcy Lions will play the Morrilton Red Devils at Morrilton.

Searcy has defeated the Red Devils for the last four years. Morrilton suffered a 19 to 7 defeat at the hands of the Batesville Pioneers last Friday, while the Lions took a drubbing from the powerful North Little Rock Wildcats.

The two teams are fairly well matched and an interesting game is expected.
